

Since we pay for our Satellite service, I think that what is heard on XM Satellite should be up to the subscribers as long as it is not seditious or illegal. Weather and traffic reporting would not fall under those guidelines.